STUDENT DUTIES, PRIVILEGES, AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary (NOBTS) is the church engaged in training selected persons for lives of ministry. These selected persons are students. Students of NOBTS, whether enrolled at the New Orleans Campus, an extension center, or as an online student, maintain certain privileges and responsibilities granted by the institution. The seminary reserves the right both to admit students and to allow students to matriculate according to the seminary’s sole judgement and discretion in keeping with the policies determined by the Southern Baptist Convention elected Board of Trustees and the seminary administration. Sole discretion in determining a student’s compliance with these policies and procedures rests with the President of the seminary.

While admission to the seminary does not give a student a contractual right which might supersede the seminary’s right to select, suspend, or dismiss those students whose conduct, behavior, or academic performance does not meet the seminary’s expectations for students of Christian ministries, the student is granted certain privileges and responsibilities listed below.

Questions concerning the interpretation of any Student Handbook policy, including Students’ Rights and Responsibilities, should be directed to the Dean of Students or a designated staff member in the Dean of Students office.
NOBTS has the duty to offer equitable and consistent academic policies. Students have the privilege to be enrolled in classes at NOBTS. Students have the responsibility to meet all academic requirements specified by the policies and administration of NOBTS (refer to the Academic Catalog and the Student Handbook).

NOBTS has the duty to prepare students for Christian ministry in an environment free from discrimination and harassment based on race or gender. Students have the privilege to learn and live in this community, but the responsibility to treat other students, faculty, and staff in a manner honoring of Christ.

NOBTS has the duty to set and maintain behavioral standards among students, staff, and faculty that exemplify Christ and provide a witness of His redemption to the surrounding community. Students have the responsibility to abide by the behavioral standards agreed to in the Ethical Conduct Statement signed as part of the application process, or those set forth in NOBTS policies.

As an entity of the Southern Baptist Convention and as a confessional seminary, NOBTS has the duty to teach and maintain policies that are consistent with the NOBTS mission statement and The Baptist Faith and Message 2000, the official doctrinal confession of the Southern Baptist Convention. Students have the duty to abide by seminary policies, but have the privilege to hold personally to different doctrines than those affirmed in the Baptist Faith and Message and the responsibility to express their convictions with kindness, gentleness, respect, and self-control.

NOBTS has the duty to provide students with the opportunity to participate in various student groups. NOBTS students have the privilege to participate in these student groups as well as the responsibility to follow the rules of those organizations and to honor the stated purpose of the group. NOBTS is not required to provide student organizations which are deemed outside the mission of the Seminary by the NOBTS President and administration.

NOBTS has the duty to allow students to apply for student housing and financial aid. Student housing and financial aid are privileges granted to students under certain terms and conditions. Students have the responsibility to abide by the terms of housing policies and financial aid agreements. Violating those terms may result in loss of housing or financial aid and payment of fees.

NOBTS has the duty to apply the financial policies of the institution in an equitable manner. Students have the responsibility to pay all bills, tuition, and fees when they are due.

NOBTS has the duty to make the institution’s principles, policies, and procedures that are relevant to student life, explicit and readily available to appropriate persons. Students have the responsibility to abide by the policies and procedures of NOBTS. Policies and Procedures may be found in the most current versions of the academic catalog and the student handbook. These resources are available at nobts.edu.

NOBTS has the duty to allow students to express disagreement with NOBTS policies and the application of those policies through established channels. Student complaints may be registered via email with the Dean of Students Office. Students have the responsibility to accept and abide by the decisions made by NOBTS regarding student complaints.

NOBTS faculty and staff have the duty to demonstrate appropriate levels of confidentiality with students and each other, but are not prohibited from contacting the administration when the NOBTS policies are breached. Students also have the responsibility to alert the administration of covenant breaches.

NOBTS has the duty to provide reasonable safety assurances and protocols for students while they are on campus and in the classroom. NOBTS has a Disaster Relief Emergency Response Plan in place that can be made available for overview with appropriate permission given by the Dean of Student’s office.
At NOBTS, these organizations offer students the opportunity to fellowship and dialogue in an academic setting. Each organization has a contact person and membership requirements. For more information about NOBTS’ student organizations, contact the Campus Life Office at 816-8427.

GENERAL POLICIES

The New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary (NOBTS) is the church engaged in training selected persons for lives of ministry. These selected persons are referred to as students in this handbook. A student is any person currently enrolled at NOBTS whether on campus or off campus. The seminary reserves the right both to admit students and to allow students to matriculate according to the seminary’s sole judgment and discretion.

Admission shall not give a student a contractual right which supersedes the seminary’s right to select its students or to suspend or dismiss those students whose conduct, behavior, or academic performance does not meet the seminary’s high expectations for students of Christian ministries. NOBTS shall be the sole arbiter of any question of a student’s compliance with the seminary’s standards and any decision concerning discipline shall be submitted to the student as a condition of the student’s continuation at NOBTS.

Questions concerning the interpretation of any Student Handbook policy should be directed to the Dean of Students or a designated person in his office.

ETHICAL AND PERSONAL CONDUCT

A. GENERAL:

1. Each student at NOBTS is expected to give evidence of above-average dedication to the Christian ethic presented in Christ’s Sermon on the Mount as recorded in Matthew 5-7. The practice of going beyond what is expected, in spirit as well as in service, should characterize every student’s activity in and outside the classroom, on and off the campus.

2. It is required that students shall conduct themselves in a manner deemed by the seminary as conduct becoming a Southern Baptist minister.

3. The seminary may take disciplinary action should the standard of ethical and personal conduct be violated. Violation of this standard shall include, but is not limited to:
   a. Academic misconduct including, but not limited to, plagiarism or cheating or conduct deemed by the seminary as being conduct not becoming a Southern Baptist minister;
   b. Use or possession of beverage alcohol or illegal drugs;
   c. Sexual activity outside of a monogamous heterosexual marriage;
   d. Giving false statements to the seminary orally or in writing including, but not limited to, one’s application for admission or registration, or altering records;
   e. Financial irresponsibility;
   f. Fighting and abusive or vulgar language;
   g. Abuse or assault in any form: verbal, physical, or sexual;
   h. Harassment in any form, including sexual harassment;
   i. Theft or vandalism;
   j. Violation of seminary academic regulations and policies;
   k. Misuse of computing resources including, but not limited to, seminary computer networks, academic computing systems, and the internet.

4. Students involved in a civil/criminal/quasi-criminal infraction are accountable to civil authorities but may also be subject to discipline by the seminary.

5. The ethical and personal conduct policies apply to students and members of their households who live or visit on the campus or other seminary property.

B. ALCOHOL, DRUGS, TOBACCO AND CAMPUS SMOKING POLICY:

1. The possession or use of beverage alcohol on or off campus is prohibited. Students under the influence of or in possession of such beverages at any time will be subject to disciplinary action.

2. The use or possession of any illegal drugs or misuse of prescription medication is prohibited. Students under the influence of or in possession of illegal drugs at any time will be subject to disciplinary action.

3. NOBTS is a smoke-free campus, including all buildings and properties. Smoking in any form is prohibited on the campus (effective June 1, 2018). Those disregarding this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, which may include assessment of property remediation fees and loss of housing privileges.

C. CELL PHONE AND COMPUTER USAGE:

Students should always demonstrate appropriate classroom behavior. This includes the usage of cell phones and computers during class time. The opportunity for students to use these items within the classroom is contingent upon their proper usage. Students are also reminded that phones are to be silenced during the class and other Seminary functions. Proper usage includes note taking and tasks specifically related to class activities as approved or assigned by the professor. Improper utilization includes all other usages such as browsing the Internet, playing games, texting/messaging, social media, and emailing. If a student is engaged in improper or disruptive usage of a cell phone or computer during a class, the professor has the right to prohibit the student from bringing the item to subsequent class meetings.

D. CHILD CARE & PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. CHILD SUPERVISION:
   a. Ages 0-5: Children in this age group must have direct (the parent must know where the child is and provide instruction to the child) and present (the parent must be within direct eyesight or earshot of the child at all times) supervision by his/her parent or by a qualified individual who has been designated by the parent. A supervisor other than the parent must have immediate access to the parent. Children in this age group are not allowed to play outside unsupervised, and children must have a competent person with them when outside.
   b. Ages 6-12: Children in this age group must have direct (the parent must know where the child is and provide instruction to the child) supervision by his/her parent or by a qualified individual who has been designated by the parent. The parent/supervisor must be on the campus and available to the child at all times. A supervisor other than the parent must have immediate access to the parent.
   c. Ages 13-17: Children in this age group may be supervised indirectly (the parent may be off campus without the child, as long as specific contact information and a means of contact are immediately available to the child) by a parent or a qualified individual age 18 or older. The parent/supervisor must be accessible by the child at all times. A supervisor other than the parent must have immediate access to the parent.
   d. Children of any age who appear to be unsupervised on the seminary campus may be interviewed by campus police or a seminary representative. The officer or representative may, at his discretion, cause the child to return to his/her parent or take other action deemed to be in the best interest and/or safety of the child.

2. SAFETY INTERVENTION:
   Adult members of the campus community may, at their discretion, intervene with any child or group of children deemed to be involved in dangerous or unsupervised activity and will report such activity and intervention to the Campus Police.

3. CITY CURFEW:
   The city of New Orleans and the Seminary enforces a curfew for persons under the age of 17 as follows:
   When School is in Session:
   Sunday -- Thursday - 8:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m.;
   Friday and Saturday - 10:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m.
   Summer Hours:
   Sunday -- Thursday - 9:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m.;
   Friday and Saturday - 11:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m.

4. CHILD NEGLECT OR ABUSE:
   State law requires reporting of child abuse or neglect to government officials. If you suspect abuse or neglect, please contact Campus Police who will assess the situation and contact Child Protective Services.
   a. A child is “any individual under the age of 18 years.” (Louisiana Children’s Code)
   b. “Abuse” means any one of the following acts which seriously endanger the physical, mental, or emotional health of the child:
      i. The infliction, attempted infliction, or, as a result of inadequate supervision, the allowance of the infliction or attempted infliction of physical or mental injury upon the child by a parent or any other person.
      ii. The exploitation or overwork of a child by a parent or any other person.
      iii. The involvement of the child in any sexual act with a parent or any other person, or the aiding or toleration by the parent or the caretaker of the child’s sexual involvement with any other person or of the child’s involvement in pornographic displays, or any other involvement of a child in sexual activity constituting a crime under the laws of this state.
   c. “Neglect” means the refusal or willful failure of a parent or caretaker to supply the child with necessary food, clothing, shelter, care, treatment, or counseling for any injury, illness or condition of the child, as a result of which the child’s physical, mental, or emotional health is substantially threatened or impaired. Consistent with Article 606 (B), the inability of a parent or caretaker to provide for a child due to inadequate financial resources shall not, for that reason alone, be considered neglect. Whenever, in lieu of medical care, a child is being provided treatment in accordance with the tenets of a well-recognized religious method of healing which has a reasonable, proven record of success, the child shall not, for that reason alone, be considered to be neglected or maltreated. However, nothing herein shall prohibit the court from ordering medical services for the child when there is substantial risk of harm to the child’s health or welfare.

E. DIVORCE POLICY:
   1. Students having marital difficulties during their seminary experience are encouraged to seek help through the seminary Leeke Magee Christian Counseling Center.
Counseling is confidential and free of charge to students and their immediate family members.

2. Current students who experience a separation or divorce will be required to withdraw from seminary for at least a year in order to allow adequate time for the individual to recover emotionally, spiritually, and financially from the pain and scars left by separation and divorce.

3. In such cases, the student and/or non-student spouse will not be allowed to remain in seminary student housing. The specific timetable for the academic withdrawal and vacating housing will be determined in light of the circumstances by the Dean of Students.

4. Application for re-entrance may be made after reconciliation is accomplished or twelve months after the effective date of legal settlement. Following divorce, regular procedures as stated in the admissions section of the Catalog will be followed.

F. DRESS CODE:

1. Personal appearance and dress are a vital part of each individual’s exemplary Christian witness. Modesty, neatness, cleanliness, and propriety in dress are expected.

2. Classroom attire should reflect an atmosphere of respect for the task of ministry training. Caps and bare feet are not appropriate in the classroom or chapel. Faculty members may enforce additional classroom dress requirements consistent with course objectives.

3. Dress for exercise or recreational activities on campus should be modest and appropriate for the activity. Shirts should be worn on campus, including the gym and fitness center and when running or exercising outdoors. Exercise clothing made of thin form-fitting materials should be covered by shorts or shirts. Specific requirements for swimwear are posted at the pool. Specific dress requirements for the weight room are addressed in weight room orientation.

G. SEMINARY POLICY ON PLAGIARISM:

1. DEFINITION OF PLAGIARISM:

Students are given the task of writing papers in order to help them learn how to think critically about the ideas of others and to present the result of their analysis in a readable form. Plagiarism defeats these purposes by cheating the student out of an opportunity to grow. Plagiarism is, therefore, a failure to distinguish between the work of the student and the work of others, either intentionally or unintentionally. It may take several forms:

a. Taking one or more sentences verbatim from a source and inserting it into a paper without the proper citation is plagiarism. The student should note that a failure to document credit for a direct quotation is also a violation of copyright law. (See Student Handbook section on Electronic Reserves.)

b. Representing the words or ideas of another person as your own words or ideas is plagiarism, even if you summarize. However, loosely paraphrasing a sentence without proper citation also is plagiarism.

c. Borrowing without proper citation such things as an outline, an idea, or an approach to dealing with a problem that is unique to an author is plagiarism. This type of plagiarism often results from poor note taking on the part of the student.

d. Plagiarism also can result from improper methods of citation. The student is responsible for learning the appropriate rules for citing sources and for following those rules throughout the paper. Ignorance of rules of citation is not an excuse.

e. In addition, plagiarism is a violation of the use of the seminary’s computing resources. (See Student Handbook section on Computer Use Policy Violations.)

For other definitions of plagiarism and ways to avoid it, see Robert A. Harris, The Plagiarism Handbook: Strategies for Preventing, Detecting, and Dealing with Plagiarism (Los Angeles, CA: Pyrczak Publishing, 2001.)

2. CONSEQUENCES FOR VIOLATIONS OF PLAGIARISM:

When a professor discovers a student has committed plagiarism, the professor should report this violation to the Dean of Students. In making this report, the original copy of the paper in question is supplied to the Dean of Students for the purpose of documentation. A letter of warning will be issued from the Dean of Students Office to the student notifying him/her of the violation. This letter will serve as the official notice of the violation, and a copy will be placed into the student’s permanent file along with the copy of the student’s paper(s). Copies of the letter will be forwarded to the appropriate Academic Dean, the Registrar, the Professor, and the Provost. This letter will state clearly that if the student plagiarizes a second time, the offense will be reported to the President. At the discretion of the President, a second offense of plagiarism may result in the student’s dismissal from the seminary.

H. LEAVELL COLLEGE PLAGIARISM POLICY:

Plagiarism Policy: A high standard of personal integrity is expected of all Leavell College students. Copying another person’s work, submitting downloaded material without proper references, submitting material without properly citing the source, submitting the same material for credit in more than one course, and committing other such forms of dishonesty are strictly forbidden. Although anything cited in three sources is considered public domain, we require that all sources be cited. Any infraction may result in failing the assignment and the course. Any infraction will be reported to the Dean of Leavell College for further action.
DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES AND GRIEVANCES

A. DISCIPLINARY MATTERS:

1. PRESIDENTIAL DISCRETION: The President of NOBTS may expel or suspend a student summarily without charging the student and without affording the student any hearing and without regard to the recommendations of other members of NOBTS administration or without regard to any findings of the Student Affairs Committee, if the President believes the student has acted in a manner clearly inconsistent with the high moral standards of the seminary, or if the President believes the student’s presence constitutes a disruption of the seminary’s ministry, or if the President believes the student’s presence represents a danger to life and property.

2. PRIMARY DISCIPLINE PROCEDURE:
   a. Initial Inquiry: Without limiting the power of the President as stated above, improper conduct by a student in academic matters may result in the student being called to appear before the appropriate Academic Dean or Provost. Non-academic matters will be referred to the Dean of Students.
   b. Formal Complaint: The administrative officer involved shall notify the student following the meeting if a formal complaint is to be lodged against the student. A copy of the formal complaint shall be forwarded to the Dean of Students, and to the Dean of Students, if the matter did not originate in his office.

3. HEARING: If a formal complaint is made, the student may request a hearing before the Dean of Students at which time the student will be given an opportunity to respond to the complaint. If the complaint is related to academics, the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies shall be present. This opportunity shall include the right to offer witnesses and other evidence in his defense.

4. FINDINGS AND DISCIPLINARY DECISIONS: The Dean of Students shall notify the student in writing of his findings and of his decision, if any, regarding discipline. Disciplinary actions include, but are not limited to:
   a. Reprimand and disciplinary probation;
   b. Reprimand, disciplinary probation and loss of credit in course or courses where dishonest work was done;
   c. Administrative withdrawal from current course work;
   d. Temporary suspension with time and terms of readmission indicated;
   e. Indefinite suspension with time and terms of readmission not indicated;
   f. Forfeiture of housing privilege;
   g. Restriction from seminary properties;
   h. Permanent dismissal.

5. APPEAL PROCEDURE:
   a. Appeal Request: The student may appeal the decision of the Dean of Students to the Student Affairs Committee by notifying in writing the Dean of Students of his decision to appeal within 48 hours of receipt by the student of the Dean of Students’ decision.
   b. Student Affairs Committee Hearing: The Student Affairs Committee shall give the student a de novo hearing, during which the student shall again be afforded the right to present witnesses and other evidence.

The Provost or the Dean of Students or their designee may present witnesses and evidence in support of the disciplinary decision. No one is permitted to contract a debt for the seminary unless authorized to do so by the Business Office located in the Hardin Student Center.

B. PERSONAL DEBT:

To preserve the good reputation of the institution and her entire family (faculty, staff, and students), all personal debts on and off campus should be satisfied completely, on or before the dates due. Failure to attend to one's financial obligations is not in keeping with the Christian principles of The New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and is grounds for disciplinary action.

C. STUDENT ACCOUNTS:

1. Each student is assigned a student account by the Business Office. Financial transactions between the student and the seminary are reflected on the account. Examples of such transactions are rents, tuition or fees, preschool charges, clinic charges, and other miscellaneous fees. Each student is responsible for timely payments on their account so that the account remains current.

2. Rent, preschool charges, and other regular charges except tuition are due in full on the first of each month. All tuition charges, registration fees, and the above mentioned monthly charges are due by the Final Day for Tuition Payment each semester. A late fee of $110.00 will be assessed to any student that does not arrange for payment in full, have a scholarship/grant letter on file with the Financial Aid Office, or set up an Official Payment’s Payment Plan (OPPM) agreement by the Final Day for Tuition Payment. Each year, the Final Day for Tuition Payment can be found in the current year’s academic catalog calendar.

3. Payments on the student account may be tendered at the Business Office in the Hardin Student Center. Payments may be made by cash, check, echeck, money order, debit card, and credit card. The Business Office accepts payment online through Self-Serve, by interactive voice recognition at 866-606-8235, or at the Business Office window. The following cards: MasterCard, Visa, American Express, and Discover are accepted. Payments may be mailed to this address: NOBTS, Attn: Business Office, 3939 Gentilly Blvd, New Orleans, LA 70126. A drop box is available outside the Business Office for anytime payments.

4. Credit balances on student accounts may be drawn if the funds are not designated (i.e. grants, scholarships, gifts). However, student accounts should not be treated as a bank account.

5. PAST DUE ACCOUNT BALANCES:

a. A student account balance shall be declared past due after the initial due date.

b. A student with a past due account balance will have a stop placed on their account, preventing them from registering, beginning class, receiving grades, and receiving transcripts. In extreme cases, a student may lose his or her housing privileges.

c. Past due balances are subject to collection efforts by the seminary and may be referred to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action in accordance with the Ethical Conduct and Disciplinary Matters sections of this Handbook.

6. Each student is responsible for all information in the most current academic catalog.

7. Email is currently the main form of communication with students. J. EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES
1. CHURCH-RELATED EMPLOYMENT:
The Church-Minister Relations (CMR) Office provides a resume referral service for students and alumni of NOBTS. Churches and organizations seeking to fill vacant full- or part-time ministry-related positions will contact the CMR office for resumes pertaining to their vacant position. The CMR office serves simply as a resource by providing students’ and alumni’s resumes to inquiring churches or ministry organizations. Ministry Connections is CMR’s Internet-based resume referral system, which is serviced by eRecruiting. Any student or alumni can obtain information about Ministry Connections on the CMR web site, http://nobts.edu/cmr. A student may activate a resume account by contacting the CMR office or by completing the on-line form on the CMR website. Appointments with the staff to discuss ministry opportunities, resume preparation, search committee interviews, or other ministry-related topics are available upon request. Students are encouraged to activate a resume with the CMR Office, whether the student is seeking a part-time ministry position while in school, graduating and desiring to make a move, or anytime in their ministry as an alumni of NOBTS. Graduating students wanting to activate a resume account are encouraged to do so as early as possible to ensure their resume is distributed well in advance of graduation. The CMR office serves as an information center by providing resume guidelines, state and association contact information, and search committee helps. The CMR office schedules interviews for ministry positions that may take place throughout the year. Interviews are printed in the Gatekeeper and posted on CMR’s bulletin board in the Hardin Student Center. The CMR office also sponsors Life Beyond Seminary week during the Spring Semester. Life Beyond Seminary is an opportunity to meet, interview, and network with various Southern Baptist state conventions, associations, agencies and ministry organizations as they participate on campus in this week that is designed for students. 3. Children learn best when accommodation is made to their learning style.

4. Children learn best when they feel ownership for their learning experience and environment.

5. Children learn best when allowed to progress at their own pace.

6. Children learn best when the learning environment addresses the development of the whole child.

7. Children learn best in an environment where they feel secure.

8. Children learn best in an environment where they are valued as unique and significant individuals created by God in His image. We believe that because each child has value in God’s eyes he must have value in our eyes. (Psalm 127:3; Mark 10:13-16)

During hurricane warnings, all seminary residents are advised to stay tuned to radio station WBSN FM-89.1, television station WWL Channel 4, radio station WWL 870 AM or www.nobts.edu for up-to-date weather information. If you have a SelfServe account, you may sign up for the NOBTS emergency text messaging service by going to http://nobts.edu/NOBTSEmergencyTextMessage.html. The Mayor’s office will be making announcements through the media. If the Mayor or the President of NOBTS recommends that you leave the city, then do so. For information, call 800-662-8701.

If a mandatory evacuation is called everyone will leave, except emergency personnel. STAYING ON CAMPUS IS NOT AN OPTION!

B. GENERAL HURRICANE PREPARATION
Once a tropical storm or hurricane enters the Gulf of Mexico:

1. Remove or secure all objects on the outside of the building, including balconies, that could cause damage if blown by the wind.

2. Clean the bathtub and fill for fresh water storage. This water can be used for flushing commodes or drinking water if power loss is substantial. Stock up on additional bottled drinking water.

3. Stock up on non-perishable food items.

   b. Listen carefully for news of the school’s closing. Additional Hurricane Flyers will be issued in this event.
   c. REMOVE ALL ITEMS FROM YOUR REFRIGERATOR AND FREEZER AND TAKE THEM WITH YOU SO AS TO PROTECT THE REFRIGERATOR IN CASE OF A LONG-TERM POWER OUTAGE.
   d. Take all of your vehicles with you to avoid damage and possible flooding.
e. Please turn in evacuation data to the Officers at the front of campus.

7. Remain indoors during storm conditions. Blowing debris can injure and even kill. Do not walk in flooded streets as manhole covers become dislodged and create a deadly danger, especially to children.

8. Please note anytime flooding occurs on campus, signs will be posted regarding roads being closed. Please pay close attention to these signs and follow the directions set forth by Campus Police. Moreover, during these times of flooding on campus please observe a Speed Limit of 5 MPH due to wakes caused by your vehicle. Any flooded area on campus becomes a NO WAKE ZONE to help keep water from being pushed into vehicles and residences.

   b. Obey Campus Police at all times.

   d. Stay inside during clean up operations. Do not wander around the campus. Keep children inside until it has been announced by Campus Police that the danger has passed.
   e. If there has been a lot of flooding, do not drink tap water until it has been determined to be safe.
   f. If no evacuation is ordered, but we lose power, leave your freezer shut. In order to best preserve your food during a power outage, do not open your freezer for any reason. Check refrigerated foods for spoilage if power has been off and remove spoiled food from your refrigerator IMMEDIATELY. Residents are encouraged to keep a cooler so as to keep food fresh.

For information contact, Telephone Services ext. 8599; telephone@nobts.edu

A. SERVICE DESCRIPTION:
   1. The seminary system services each seminary office and all student residences.
   2. Local and long distance calls can be made and received 24 hours per day on this telephone. All residents living in the housing units indicated are responsible for abiding by the following policies and procedures regarding the system.

B. GENERAL TELEPHONE REGULATIONS:
   1. WARNING: No operator-assisted calls may be charged to any seminary system telephone (outgoing or incoming.) This means no collect calls may be accepted and no calls placed from another telephone may be charged to the seminary system phone. Any operator-assisted call charged to the seminary system phone will result in a $5.00 surcharge per call on the student’s account, in addition to the cost of the call.
   2. LONG DISTANCE CALLS: Long distance calls are billed monthly to the account of the responsible student. In semi-private dorm rooms, the first student assigned to that room receives a computer account of all calls and must settle with the other student assigned to that room. The billing includes length of call, charge, number called, time call was placed, date of call, and destination (state) called.
   3. DIRECTORY ASSISTANCE CHARGES: Cost for local Directory Assistance (1-411) and Long Distance Directory Assistance (1-{Area Code}-555-1212) will be billed to the student’s account.

C. EMERGENCY CALLS:
   1. The seminary phone system interfaces with the local phone company through a number of “trunk lines” which attach to our system in the building next to Shepherd’s Corner. When you press “9” on your Seminary phone, you access one of the trunk lines, allowing you to dial an off-campus phone. When you call 9-1-1 in an emergency, your seminary phone number (816- 8100) and your address on campus will NOT be displayed on the emergency dispatcher’s computer. Instead, the 9-1-1 operator will see only the phone number of the trunk line and the seminary address. Slowly and distinctly, you MUST tell the 9-1-1 dispatcher your name, phone number, correct street address and the nature of the emergency.

2. A second problem arises if you accidentally dial 9-1-1 while trying to dial a long distance phone number. The emergency dispatcher’s operating procedure states that he/she MUST send a police car to the address displayed on the screen in the event that the caller hangs up during the call. If you unintentionally dial 9-1-1, please stay on the line and simply explain to the emergency dispatcher what has happened and give your correct address. You will not be reprimanded or prosecuted for your mistake.

3. In summary, observe the following guidelines when using your seminary telephone:
   a. Dial carefully.
   b. In the event of an emergency, call 9-1-1 and tell the dispatcher your name, phone number, your exact street address and the nature of the emergency. Speak slowly and clearly. After talking to 911 then call Campus Police at 944-7711.
   c. If you call 9-1-1 accidentally, stay on the line and explain the situation to the dispatcher, including your correct address. Then call Campus Police and tell them a NOPD patrol car will be responding to your inadvertent call.

4. REPAIRS: Repair needs should be reported immediately by calling extension 8599 or emailing your needs to telephone@nobts.edu. Costs resulting from abuse or damage to the system will be charged to the student’s account.

D. DIALING PROCEDURES:

1. To dial any seminary system phone number from a dormitory or apartment phone requires only the last four digits.

2. To dial local phones outside the seminary system (on or off campus), dial 9, wait for a dial tone, then dial the complete 7-digit number.

3. To call long distance direct, dial 9+1+area code and the complete 7-digit number. The cost of the call will be billed to you by the seminary.

4. To call long distance collect, dial 9+0+area code and the complete 7-digit number. Wait for the operator to give instructions on forwarding charges.

E. ALTERNATE LONG DISTANCE SERVICE:

Any student on the seminary system may elect to use a long distance calling card (MCI, SPRINT, AT&T, or some other long distance calling card). That service will provide a calling card for billing and specific instructions for accessing their system. To avoid billing confusion, your calling card number must not reflect the same number sequence as your phone number. Note: Any service used must provide a local access number or a 1-800 access number. Using 9+1 automatically

A. GENERAL POLICIES AND SERVICES:
1. Every student is responsible for the General Policies section of this handbook. Some policies obviously apply only when the extension student is attending courses on the main campus. Other statements, such as conduct policies and the handling of personal account balances, are incumbent on the extension student at all times.
2. To the extent logistically possible, extension center students are afforded the same services as students on the main campus. All official student records are maintained in the academic and administrative offices in New Orleans. Access to assistance from Business Affairs, Student Development, Church-Minister Relations, Registrar, Academic Counseling, and Extension Centers Offices is available through the main seminary line (504) 282-4455 or (800) 662-8701. Telephone contact with faculty members must be arranged through the Extension Center Office.

B. STUDENT HANDBOOK:
1. A copy of the Student Handbook is made available to each extension student.
2. Prior to a visit to the New Orleans campus for an Academic Workshop, the extension student should review general administrative policies, campus security policies, and policies governing the use of recreational facilities.

C. ACADEMIC COUNSELING:
Academic counseling is available to all students through the Registrar’s office for graduate students and the Leavell College office for undergraduate students.

D. BUSINESS OFFICE: See Finances in the General Policies section of this handbook.

E. CAMPUS CLINIC:
Extension center students have access to the services of the Clinic on the main campus while they are attending workshops. See Facilities and Services, on page 16 in this handbook.

F. CATALOG:
1. The Catalog is the official administrative/academic document of the seminary. A copy of each year’s edition is made available to every active student. An online version of the catalog is also available on the schools website at www.nobts.edu.
2. Every student is encouraged to pay careful attention to all the academic and administrative policy information reflected in this important publication. The attention of each extension student is called, as well, to the Extension Center Programs section found in the Catalog.

G. COMPUTER SERVICES: See the Computer Use Policy on pg. 20.

H. FINANCIAL AID: See Financial Aid listed under the General Policies section of this handbook.

I. LIBRARY UTILIZATION:
1. Library services and policies are available to each Extension Center student via the library web pages. The pages provide specific instructions on how the extension student can make use of the services of the main campus staff of the John T. Christian Library facility.
2. In addition to the direct mail procedure for drawing on the research capacity of the main library, the Extension Center Library arrangements make religion resources available to the extension student in the area in which his or her center is located.
3. All extension centers have library resources available for students. Please contact the Director of your particular extension center for details.

J. INFORMATION ON THE CITY OF NEW ORLEANS:
1. Information about the city of New Orleans is available in the Dean of Students Office.
2. Contact with the mission work in the city can be made through the office of the New Orleans Baptist Association, 2222 Lakeshore Drive, New Orleans, LA, 70122. The telephone number is (504) 282-1428.

K. OPEN DOOR POLICY:
1. The open door policy at NOBTS is descriptive of its commitment to personal attention to students. The administration and faculty have always maintained the practice of being available. Each one is accessible to every student to assist with either academic or administrative matters.
2. Faculty/administrative leaders will make time to assist you personally. Their office hours and teaching schedules are posted on their office doors each term. Making an appointment is the best way to ensure availability.

1. Facilities are available for housing extension center students and their guests when they have occasion to attend workshops, continuing education programs, and other activities on the main campus. Located across the street from the Hardin Student Center, the recently built Hamm and Henry Halls as well as PGH rooms offer clean, safe hotel-style rooms with cable TV. The lobby for checking into guest housing closes at 12:00 am and reopens at 6:30 am. Arrangements for late check-in should be made prior to arrival. To make reservations, call (504) 944-4455 (local) or (888) 886-7276 (toll-free).

2. Additionally, dormitory rooms with baths on the hall are available in guest dormitories on Providence Place on the campus. The daily charge for each type of room is affordable.

3. Providence House facilities are also available to SBC church groups and individual members visiting the New Orleans area. A group coordinator is available to assist group leaders in arranging lodgings and planning activities (e.g. River Boat Cruises, Audubon Zoo, etc.).
