2024 TEL HADID EXPEDITION

ISRAEL • JUNE 12 - JULY 12, 2024

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary's Moskau Institute of Archaeology and Tel Aviv University are excavating ancient Tel Hadid in Israel. The full dig is four weeks, but volunteers can participate in one, two, three, or four weeks.

THE DIG

Join in the archaeological excavation of Tel Hadid, ancient city that was resettled by the Assyrians after the fall of Israel in 722 BC. The site was also home to Hebrew people who returned to Israel after the Exile (Ezra 2:33; Nehemiah 7:37; Nehemiah 11:34). Visit hadidexpedition.org for more about the site history and the reasons for the excavation.

WEEKEND TRAVEL

The expedition will arrange field trips to important archaeological sites and regions of Israel (i.e. Caesarea Maritima, Galilee, Hazor, Jerusalem, Lachish, Masada, Megiddo, and others). Trips are included in the weekly costs, however participants are responsible for the cost of meals during the tours.

ACADEMIC CREDIT

Up to 9 credit hours of undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral coursework is available during the dig. Standard tuition and fees apply. The Tel Hadid excavation provides a great opportunity for Ph.D. students or faculty members at other schools to earn credit in the field of archaeology. Contact Dr. Dennis Cole (rdcole@nobts.edu) for details.
