

Restoring Trust between Adolescents and Parents: Moving Past the Lies

Dr. Jeff Nave
Alex Wendel

(Available for NASW 1.5 Clinical Hours, NBCC (LPC) 1.5 Clock Hours, LMFT 1.5 CE)

A practical template for working with families in the wake of a serious breach of trust between parents and adolescent children.

Objectives:

1. Participants will consider the range of conditions in which deception and breach of trust become the primary therapeutic focus in family therapy.
2. Participants will consider specific family therapy interventions for addressing patterns of deception and dishonesty on the part of adolescent children.
3. Participants will practice addressing deception and dishonesty with family therapy based case studies and scenarios.
